Dear Friends,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to the International Press Conference for religious Peace on October 4th 1985.

Unfortunately none of our representatives was able to attend the conference, which is at present beyond the scope of our small organisation. And again unfortunately, we missed the chance to support this event with a message.

With this letter I would like to apologize for the missed chance to help you.

I hope the Conference was a big success in terms of creating an understanding among representatives of different religions and will have a long-term positive influence on the difficult situation in the world today.

With best wishes for your work,

Yours in the Dharma

Sylvia Wetzel
